SCOUTS

Outdoor & Adventure

- 1. Take part in 3 Nights Away experiences in three different scout districts throughout Scotland.
- 2. Participate in an activity as a Scout at one of three Scottish Scouts Adventure Centres (Lochgoilhead, Meggernie or Fordell Firs)
- 3. Help plan and participate in a Scottish themed camp, activity or troop night, this can be in conjunction with another section/group.
- 4. Have a go at traditional Scottish sports such as shinty, curling, golf and highland games

Skills

- 1. Under camp conditions plan, prepare and cook a full traditional Burns supper
- 2. Find out about the history of Scottish clans and tartans; try creating your own tartan.
- 3. Investigate Robert Burns and his life, recite one of his works.
- 4. Investigate Charles Rennie Macintosh and his work; create a similar piece of his art.

World

- 1. Make international contact with other Scouts from around the world
- 2. Attend a Scout section event out with your own district, perhaps regional or national level.
- 3. Visit a traditional Highland Games, Scottish Show or festival.
- 4. Visit a National Trust for Scotland, Historic Scotland, or site of National interest.

Top Tips - If you haven't finished your badges and challenges, you can carry on and complete them in your first term as an Explorer Scout. Please note that any of these badge requirements can be done in conjunction with the UK badge programme.
